

Grand Haven/Spring Lake/ Ferrysburg Trail Network

The tri-cities of Grand Haven, Spring Lake and Ferrysburg have become a crossroads for trail riders with an extensive network of paved paths and bike lanes interwoven throughout these communities. Wherever you are in this area, you'll find trails nearby and easy connections to other local trails. Spend a sunny day or weekend exploring the area's beaches, bayous, lakes, rivers, parks, and local attractions by bike, brisk run or leisurely stroll.

There are plenty of public access areas to embark on your journey. In Grand Haven, you'll find easy access to the Grand Haven Waterfront Trail at Grand Haven State Park and public parking areas along the waterfront.

Lakeside Trail

When you cross over the north side of the US-31 drawbridge, the trail system connects with the 15-mile Lakeside Trail, which encircles Spring Lake through the communities of Ferrysburg, Fruitport and Village of Spring Lake. Trails in the Village of Spring Lake also lead to the Grand River Greenway Trail, with views of the Grand River, and the new North Bank Trail.

North Bank Trail

The first 3.3 miles of the North Bank Trail were paved and opened to the public in 2011. State funding has been approved to help acquire right-of-ways and sections of the abandoned Grand Trunk Railroad to be developed from Spring Lake to Coopersville, where it will eventually connect to the Fred Meijer Pioneer Trail and downtown Grand Rapids. Starting at Central Park, the trail travels through a scenic landscape of blueberry fields, woodlands and marshes.
